CLAMORING FOR WAR.

Servia Forcing King Peter to Act.

Populace of Belgrade Ask Ruler to Fight or Abdicate.

Czar of Bulgaria Welcomed at Philippopolis by Rejoicing People.

Forts on Bosphorus Fire Blank Shots at New Bulgarian Flag.

IN SPITE of warnings to King Peter from Great Britain and France, that the people of Servia be kept in check, the populace of Belgrade held demonstrations yesterday and demanded the resignation of the Cabinet and also the abdication of King Peter, unless he declared war against Austria-Hungary, which has refused to accept Servia's protest against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Two thousand Austro-Hungarian troops are garrisoned along the Drina River, between Bosnia and Servia, ready for eventualities, and it is stated 150,000 men can be thrown into Servian territory in twenty-four hours.

M. Iowolsky, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, arrived in London last night and will have a conference today with Sir Edward Grey, British secretary of State for foreign affairs, concerning the calling together of powers, signatory to the treaty of Berlin, in an endeavor to bring about order in the Balkans.

Prince Ferdinand, Czar of Bulgaria, entered Philippopolis yesterday and received an enthusiastic greeting at the hands of the troops and the populace.

No confirmation has yet been received of the report that Albanians have declared their independence of the Sultan of Turkey.

Yesterday at Candia, the largest city in Crete, the militia followed the example of their compatriots at Cana, the capital, and took the oath of loyalty to Greece. A British fleet of two battleships, two cruisers and two torpedo-boat destroyers is today well on its way from Malta to the Aegean sea.

The forts on the Bosphorus yesterday fired blank shots across the bows of a steamer flying the new Bulgarian royal flag as it attempted to pass them.

A remarkable feature of the situation is the self-control of the Turks, who are acting practically under the direction of Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary of foreign affairs, who is supposed to have written a note to Austria-Hungary which was published today.

ENGLAND AND RUSSIA CONFER.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The news of the situation in today is a position of suspended animation, pending the conference between M. Iowolsky, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary.

The Russian Minister will arrive here from Paris this evening and will discuss with Sir Edward tomorrow the question of a conference of the powers.

Great Britain is still of the opinion that it would be better for Turkey if the matter were settled without a conference, even in principle. The government is open to conviction but only on the ground that the discussion be on what the Foreign Office terms "present breaches of the Berlin treaty."

The Austro-Hungarian suggestion, that the conference should be confined to the Bulgarian declaration of independence, is held by the Foreign Office to be wholly untenable. The Foreign Office contends that if the powers decide in favor of a conference they cannot ignore Austria-Hungary's breach of the treaty.

Great Britain is not one of the powers favored with the Austro-Hungarian proposal that the new status of Bulgaria should be recognized.

Up to the present time no official intimation has been received that Turkey is coming around to the British view that the question should be settled without a conference.

Servia, the immediate danger point in the Balkan situation, is calming down, and in this direction the war cloud is not so threatening as it was yesterday.

The powers, notably France and Great Britain, have warned the Servian King to control his people, and safer counsels prevail in Belgrade, where it is beginning to be recognized that war with Austria-Hungary would mean national suicide.

Great Britain has dispatched a fleet to the Turkish island of Lemnos, presumably at the request of Turkey. The presence of these vessels will exert a calming influence.

Turkey has protested to the powers against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria-Hungary, and the Turkish Imperial commission at Sofia has been instructed to continue the discharge of his duties, including the Porte for the powers have recognized the independence of Bulgaria. This may lead to some overt act against the Imperial commission.

M. Iowolsky, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, has left Paris for London to continue his efforts for the call.

Cabinet Talks Politics.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Political gossip occupied the attention of the Cabinet at its meeting today after routine matters had been transacted, but none of the members would talk on the phases of the situation which they dis-

who has been warned by the powers to restrain his subjects, who are clamoring for war with Austria-Hungary.

UNIONISTS SET FIRE TO HOUSE.

Seek Revenge on Contractor Who Refused Their Demand—Detectives Work on Case.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Firebugs burned a new $9000 residence at Elm street and Evanston avenue, in Evanston, today, to get revenge on the contractor.

The Evanston police put a dozen detectives to work on the case as soon as they learned the nature of the fire. T. J. Curry and Sons, the contractors who built the residence, told the police they recently refused a demand of laborer representatives to hire only union men.

Edwin Walker, owner of the house, said he had no enemies and could not imagine who would try to do him harm. Two men were seen lurking about the neighborhood several hours before the fire, arousing the suspicions of the residents. They were closely watched, but finally disappeared. Soon afterward a policeman saw smoke pouring from the basement of the new house.

PEABODY (Mass.) Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the nervousness of the wedding which has existed for over a year between the Harriman and Rock Island interests is at an end.

While all the parties in interest today refused to be quoted, the World is able to announce that the statement that the deal of today is purely banking transaction, is correct. It does not mean that either Harriman or the Union Pacific interests are to actually control either the Rock Island or St. Louis and San Francisco. It does mean, however, that the policies of these two railroads are hereafter to be conducted on lines that will meet with Harriman's approval.

AGRICULTURAL BANK OPENS.

MANILA, Oct. 9.—The Agricultural Bank, founded by the government, with a capital of 1,000,000 pesos, has begun business. Secretary of Finance Ardena is president and A. R. Brangan is cashier. Real estate and harvested crops are the only collateral which will be accepted by the bank, and interest will be paid at the rate of 10 per cent.

TO INVAD SOUTH.

Taft Insists on Trip Into Dixie.

Will Be First Presidential Candidate of Party to Cross Line.

Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina in the List.

Whirlwind Wind-up of Campaign Planned for New York State.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It may have been that the principal Republican campaigner has spoken in Richmond, Va., in previous endeavors for the Presidency, but it is the records are missing at this precise moment. William H. Taft, probably the only Republican candidate for the Presidency who ever went over the line into the Solid South, is scheduled not only for this speech in Virginia, but for a short trip through Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina.

The attention given to the Southern States does not indicate any belief on the part of the Republican managers that such States as Virginia and North Carolina can be carried for the Republican ticket. Mr. Taft made some promise which he insists shall be carried out, and in spite of the fact that National Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock considers the southern visit largely a waste of time, it will be made.

PLANS ARRANGED.

Mr. Taft will speak in the heart of the old Confederacy on October 17 and on the same day before he reaches the Virginia capital, he will talk in Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. Hitchcock devoted a large part of today arranging the plans for the southern trip of the Presidential candidate. The national chairman is convinced that the sooner Mr. Taft gets into New York State the better, but he had to give in and plan a short trip to the border States of the South.

Mr. Taft will be in Tennessee on October 14, speaking in the morning at Chattanooga, at Knoxville in the afternoon, and at Bristol in the evening. The last meeting is for both Virginia and Tennessee. Bristol being a border city.

FINISH IN NEW YORK.

He then starts for Washington by way of North Carolina and Virginia, speaking at Greensboro in the afternoon and at Richmond at night. He will be in Washington on October 13, and goes through New Jersey on October 13, speaking at Trenton, Newark and Camden. The same evening he will speak in Baltimore and the next day takes him into West Virginia, speaking in Parkersburg in the evening.

From there he returns to Ohio and on October 22 takes up a tour of Indiana, which is scheduled to deliver his final address for the last big mass meeting of the campaign here on Saturday, October 24.

The following and concluding week of the campaign will be spent in New York State, the Monday before election being given to the wind-up in Ohio, at Youngstown.

Before attempting the Tennessee trip, which is a preface to the invasion of Virginia and North Carolina, Mr. Taft will speak in Wheeling, W. Va., October 14, and in Louisville, Ky., the following day.

No such Republican endeavor has been attempted in the South within the recent memory of man.

NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

HONGKONG, Oct. 10.—It is learned here from a reliable source that the reason of Sir Robert Hart's recent visit to England was to bring about an alliance between China, the United States and Britain to counteract the interests of the three nations in the Far East.

CONSUL-GENERAL RIDGELY.

MONTREY (Mex.) Oct. 10.—Benjamin Bridger, United States Consul-General to Mexico, died at midnight last night in a Pullman car while waiting for the City of Mexico train.

AMERICAN FLEET.

BIG BATTLESHIPS NOW STEAMING FOR JAPAN.

MANILA, Oct. 10.—The sixteen big battleships of the Atlantic fleet are now en route to Japan. Sail orders were given by Rear-Admiral Charles N. Sperry for the fleet to depart two hours earlier than the time announced yesterday, and at 6 o'clock this morning the flagship Connecticut set under way. Half an hour later, and the great ships were in motion and followed the Connecticut down the bay.

Is the brilliantly sunlit morning, a majestic line of warships presents a magnificent appearance, their sides gleaming as they moved slowly on. The public had not seen the change in the hour of departure and few witnessed it.

There was consequently no ceremony or demonstration of any kind save the dipping of flags by the merchantmen and the whistling salutes by the launches in the bay. By 8:45 o'clock, the long line had cleared Corregidor Island, at the mouth of the bay, and headed north into the China Sea.

Simultaneously with the departure of the fleet, the authorities of Manila started a new campaign to eradicate cholera. The police were ordered to make two house-to-house inspections daily, and the constabulary, which has been reinforced, will perform ordinary police duty and guard infected houses. The disinfecting force has been increased and the general scope of the work broadened. The number of new cases reported averages ten daily.

ROYAL TURK RENOUNCES.

Heir to Kurdistan Throne Files Intention of Becoming an American Citizen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Archdeacon Malik Gabriel Javah, who claims to be a brother of the present ruler of Kurdistan, appeared at the Federal Naturalization Bureau in the general postoffice today, and renounced his allegiance to the Sultan of Turkey. After declaring his intention of becoming an American citizen, he received "first papers."

The applicant recorded as plain Gabriel Javah, said he was born at Zerine Jolur, Turkey, and that he arrived in this country on June 25, 1905. Javah described himself as a clergyman. His brother being a nominal ruler of Kurdistan, Javah claims to be heir to the throne.

MISTCHENKO SHOT IN SHAM BATTLE.

RUSSIAN GENERAL VICTIM OF REVOLUTIONIST PLOT.

Officer Well-Known in Russo-Japanese War Wounded in Leg During Maneuvers in Turkestan—Ball Cartridges and Traces of Shot Found in Several Rifles.

ASKANIAD (Turkestan) Oct. 9.—During maneuvers of the 7th army corps today in the vicinity of Askaniad, Gen. Mistchenko, who played a conspicuous part in the Russo-Japanese War and who is now Governor-General of Turkestan, was wounded in a sham battle. A revolutionist plot is suspected.

The general was watching the operations from a slight eminence when the whistle of bullets was heard. He was struck in the leg above the knee. An adjutant of Mistchenko was slightly wounded.

The maneuvers were suspended and the weapons and ammunition of the troops examined. Ball cartridges and traces of shot in the barrels of several rifles were discovered.

Announcement That Kuhn, Loeb & Company Will Take Care of $7,125,000 in Notes Maturing on December 1 Starts Active Speculation in Rock Island and Other Stocks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A deal of far-reaching significance in the financial and railroad world was concluded today in Wall street, when the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad entered into a contract with Kuhn, Loeb and Company, by which the banking firm is to take care of $7,125,000 of notes of that railroad, which mature on December 1.

MAN WOUNDED BY BAYONET.

Private Gollner of Pomona Stabbed.

Thigh Slashed in Mock Rush Upon Enemy.

Hospital Corps Prompt and Efficient.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
CAMP ATASCADERO, Oct. 9.—An infantry skirmish drill during the maneuvers this afternoon became intensely realistic to John Gollner of Pomona, a member of Company D, Seventh Regiment National Guard, when during a charge up a hillside, Private Cornell of the same company ran his bayonet into Gollner's leg, furnishing the hospital corps a real wound to practice on.

The militia was engaged in formations for attack and defense by companies, in various parts of the large maneuver grounds. Capt. W. W. Mitchell had given his company the order to rush a position on a ridge held by the enemy represented by another company of the Seventh at the point of the bayonet. The men charging up the hillside, plunged through the dense thicket of brush and over the ravines and gullies with all the enthusiasm of a charge on a real enemy. In dashing through the brush a sweeping branch turned aside Cornell's rifle and its sharp sword bayonet ran into the thigh of Gollner, who was running a little ahead of Cornell, cutting a large gash.

The men of the hospital corps were on the "firing line" in a moment and bandaged the wound so well that it elicited the admiration of the surgeon at the camp field hospital, to which Gollner was taken. The wounded man will be out in a few days.

MARCH TO SEA.
The Arizona battalion of militia, commanded by Col. James H. McClintock, will make a "march to the sea." The four companies will start out tomorrow morning, marching to the ocean, camp for the night, and return Sunday.

Fleet maneuvers in battalion and squadron formation, each acting independently, and routine drills, comprised the work of the troops today.

MOST POPULAR MANEUVER, DECLARE THE SOLDIERS.

Two battalions from the Eighth Infantry, under Capt. Edward Bell and Capt. Traver Norman, and two from the Twentieth, commanded by Capt. F. D. Webster and Capt. C. C. Smith, were engaged in outpost maneuvers, and the sketching of positions.

A tactical ride in which the Governor's staff, the National Guard brigade staff, and the regimental commanders participated, was conducted by Capt. C. D. Rhodes, Lieut. O. Fuga gave a lecture on the regular and irregular officers and Lieut. C. H. Knight of the engineers corps instructed the Second Regiment, National Guard, in the "digging trenches."

FIVE DESERTIONS.
Five desertions, three from the Fifth Cavalry and two from the Eighth Infantry, have occurred since the maneuvers began.

No court-martial will convene in camp until after the joint maneuvers are over. The two diphtheria cases from the Fifth Regiment, National Guard, are reported to be doing well and no further cases have developed.

On October 15, the following officers will start on the three days' ninety-mile riding tests: Col. Maas, Biddle, Bollinger, Stephens, Smith and Schuyler, and Maj. Dunnig, Keefe, Foster, McKiever, Weight and Turner.

Artillery Ready for Work at the military maneuvers now being held at Atascadero camp, where regular and National Guard of California are engaged in mimic warfare against imaginary enemy.

was spending the summer at the ocean resort. As Mr. Johnson started to thank the rescuer of his hat, he gazed into a pair of merry blue eyes that almost made him speechless with admiration, which was intensified as the breeze toyed with a few straggling golden locks of her hair. It was love at first sight. Mr. Johnson abandoned the automobile trip and remained at Atlantic City. In the following days of the summer, Miss Chapek and Mr. Johnson, in a touring car, were familiar figures as they passed through the streets of Atlantic City. Finally, during one of these rides, the question was popped by the young man, and the ocean breeze wafted the word "yes" from the girl's lips. The next chapter of the romance thus begun is contained in the betrothal announcement which appeared in today's newspapers. The wedding will take place in the spring.

MRS. MARTINE DEAD.
Became Notorious by Declaring Her Child Was Pittsburgh Millionaire's Daughter.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
DENVER, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Cora Belle Martine, whose daughter, Arvilla, was taken away from her recently in this city by the Humane Society and who achieved much notoriety by declaring that the girl was the child of a Pittsburgh millionaire, died of pneumonia in the Denver County Hospital today.

Mrs. Martine was a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Holden of San Francisco, and claimed to be related to the Crockers. They deny the connection.

A story told by Mrs. Martine that she was a nun and had been induced to leave the convent by the Pittsburgh man who, she claimed, was the father of her child, has been disproved on investigation by local Catholic priests.

QUEEN BEGS AIRSHIP TRIP.

WRIGHT PROMISES MARGHERITA AEROPLANE VOYAGE.

Mrs. Berg, First Woman Passenger, Was Prepared for Her Flight by Being Tied With Cords from Head to Foot to Keep Her Skirts from Flapping.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LEMANS, Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy successfully stormed Wilbur Wright's heart late yesterday afternoon when she begged to be allowed to make an airship trip with him on her next visit. The aeronaut blushed and finally agreed, reminding the Queen that he would be here only a little longer in order to teach the management of the machine to a few students of aeronautics, according to the terms of his contract.

Much amusement was created by preparations for taking up Mrs. Berg Wednesday. It was evident that some special costume would have to be invented for the woman, in order to prevent her skirts from interfering with the steering gear or fluttering too spectacularly in the air at a height of 100 feet. So she was tied up from head to foot with cords.

Mrs. Berg, who was the first woman ever to ascend in an airplane, is credited with the intention of ordering a costume of silk and rubber especially adapted to the Wright machine.

AERO CLUB FOR WOMEN.

STARTED IN NEW YORK.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Women are now to learn to fly. The New York Aero Club is in its genesis. The project of the feminine aeronauts was conceived by Mrs. Lake, wife of the constructor of the sub-marine vessels, and Mrs. Gillespie, whose husband won fame for his airplane.

Mrs. L. Stevens, wife of Captain Stevens, has been selected as leader of the organization.

While the organizers aim for a national club, it is their intention to give women of other states the privilege of associate membership. Among the charter members will be the wives of many of the Aero Club's members as well as of the Aeronautical society.

The object is to initiate women into the science of aerial travel, to teach them through their knowledge on the subject the movement may become widespread.

Herbert, himself an enthusiast on the subject, is building an airplane, but will not compete for the prize.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Chicago Day, the annual anniversary of the great fire of 1871, was fittingly celebrated today by the formal opening of the new $5,000,000 county building. Mayor Bissell issued a proclamation yesterday in accordance with the tradition.

TIED OF BEING STARED AT.

Mrs. Lemp Gets Court Permission for Respite from St. Louis Curious.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS (Mo.), Oct. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. William J. Lemp, Jr., the "Lavender Lady," is weary of being stared at in St. Louis and longs to be away to Oconomowoc for a brief respite. She and her attorneys went into Judge Kinney's court today and asked if he would not please let her go away for awhile and be rid of the stares and comments which are her portion here.

On account of the pendency of her suit for divorce against William J. Lemp, Jr., she cannot remove her son, William J. Lemp, third, from the jurisdiction of the court without permission. Accordingly her attorneys went into the court and filed formal application for permission for their client to go to Oconomowoc.

The application was granted with the proviso that she return to St. Louis in ten days.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Grand Jury in City Jail.

A visit was paid the City Jail yesterday by the grand jury. Every tank was inspected, and the kitchen and food bins carefully examined. Many prisoners were questioned as to the treatment they receive.

Drops and Expires.

While waiting on a customer, Miguel Dusen, proprietor of a fruit store at No. 665 Broadway street, dropped yesterday afternoon, and quickly expired. Heart failure is supposed to have caused death. Antonio Dusen, a daughter, is the only relative left.

Accidental End.

A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday in the case of an unidentified man, who was killed late Thursday night by a Salt Lake train on the road near the County Farm. The body is held at the Pierce-mortuary, awaiting identification.

Unlucky Fall.

J. F. Spencer of No. 563 Phillis street fell thirty feet off an oil derrick at Terrell, Riverside county, yesterday, fracturing both arms and dislocating his wrist. He was brought to his home in this city last night, where the fractures were reduced.

To Teach Wireless.

One of the largest wireless telegraph plants on the Pacific Coast has been installed by the Southern Pacific in the school of telegraphy at No. 540 South Central avenue. The purpose of this addition is to familiarize all of the telegraphers with the wireless. Classes are held every afternoon and evening.

Carried a Knife.

A. T. Garrison, a negro, was arrested last night on Court street while following two women. When he was searched at the Police station a knife was found on his person. Garrison came here about a month ago from Missouri. He has been employed as a bootblack at No. 113 North Spring street.

Tries Oil Blaze.

A negro, believed by the police to be a pyromaniac, set fire to an oil well belonging to the Harris Oil Company at No. 560 Ramona street, about 10 o'clock last night. The employees at the well discovered the blaze and extinguished it before any damage was done. The negro, who was seen near the well a few minutes before the fire started, escaped.

Automobile Fire.

While saving an automobile belonging to William Lacy of No. 3200 Wilshire boulevard last night Charles Holtz, a chauffeur, was slightly burned about the face and hands. The fire practically destroyed the garage. The damage to the building was estimated at $50, and the contents of the contents was placed at $100. The fire originated in some oil waste which had been used to wipe the machine.

Liberal Alliance Smoker.

At a smoker given by the Liberal Alliance in Turner Hall last night there were nearly as many candidates on the county tickets of the parties as there were members of the Alliance. There was speaking, a hand of thirty pieces, a quartette and refreshments. Among the candidates who spoke were W. D. Gould, Frank P. Hurd, and H. M. Hurd, legislative candidates, H. D. McCabe and "Tony" Schwamm, Supervisors, candidates, and others.

Automobile "Lock Horns."

A collision between automobiles tied up traffic on Broadway, near Second street, for more than twenty minutes yesterday morning. A large Tourist car was traveling from Broadway when a Stoddard-Dayton turned the corner, going "high speed." The machine skidded on the wet paving, and the springs of the rear part locked with the forward mechanism of the Tourist. Cars and vehicles of all descriptions came to a standstill while mechanics worked to separate the steel flyers.

Pressman Shocked.

L. W. Frediana, 36 years of age, of No. 1255 Iowa street, was painfully scorched yesterday morning when a fuse burned out in the plant of the Home Printing Company at No. 115 North Broadway. Frediana is a pressman. Yesterday morning he attempted to adjust a fuse to the main switch. The switch had been causing considerable trouble, and when Frediana tried to fix it, there came a shower of sparks, and the pressman was stunned and knocked to the floor. That he escaped with his life is considered remarkable.

WARRANT FOR LIFE.

Deputy United States Marshal Surrenders to Bride on Trip With Federal Prisoner.

Deputy United States Marshal Jackson Frederick Durlin took a Federal prisoner to Riverside yesterday and came back to Los Angeles a prisoner himself—and glad of it.

Yesterday Durlin asked Chief Deputy Sittler if he could have a half day off. "Not on your life," responded his chief. "You will have to take Pablo Juarez to the County Jail at Riverside this afternoon." The prisoner had been sentenced to eight months in jail for selling liquor to Indians.

So Durlin wandered out with his prisoner and headed for Riverside. But on the way he telephoned to Miss Adeline C. Cronin of Los Angeles to meet him. This she did and the party arrived in the City of Oranges safely.

While Durlin turned over his prisoner to the Sheriff of Riverside county, Miss Cronin waited at the County Courthouse. Here she was joined a few minutes later by Durlin and it took only a moment to acquire a marriage license.

The young couple were married by Superior Judge Denmore in the Court-house, and they received the congratulations of all those who had heard of the proceedings and hastened to take part.

DENIES APPEAL OF MURDERER.

SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS LIFE SENTENCE OF BESOLD.

Prisoner Killed Wife in Temescal Canyon and Tragedy Was Baffling Mystery for Months—Self-made Widower Captured in Washington, D. C., Where He Had Married Again.

Anton Besold, sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of his wife, Clara, in Temescal Canyon in August, 1907, is doomed to pay the full penalty meted out to him for his crime. The State Supreme Court yesterday denied his appeal for a new trial and upholds the verdict pronounced by the late Judge B. N. Smith in the local Superior Court.

Nearly a month after her death the body of a woman, partially disintegrated and gnawed by ground squirrels, was found in a sitting posture in a lonely spot of Temescal Canyon, above Port Los Angeles. A bullet hole in the head showed how she had met her death.

There was absolutely nothing to help identify the remains and for a long time it seemed as though the mystery would never be cleared up. The clothing was of good quality and a wealth of golden hair showed the woman to have met death before any marks of old age had overtaken her. There was a half obliterated laundry mark only as a clue.

Brought to Los Angeles he was quickly brought to trial, and although the evidence was purely circumstantial, it was so overwhelming, apparently, that it was simply a question of punishment. Some of the jury held out for a time for the death penalty, but all compromised on a recommendation for mercy, which saved the life of the prisoner.

Besold appealed from the verdict and sentence and applied for a new trial. His appeal was denied by the Supreme Court yesterday.

Since his conviction Besold has been a prisoner in the County Jail, and is the head trusty of the prison. Here he looks after the feeding of the other prisoners and acts as a sort of arbitrator among them in petty quarrels. It is asserted that he has been a model prisoner under two sheriffs and an excellent trusty.

From the first Besold has maintained his innocence. In the jail he has taken to study and has written considerable poetry, which he illustrates himself.

Sheriff Hammel will arrange at once to send Besold to San Quentin, which will be his home during the rest of his life, unless some Governor exercises executive clemency.

CARRYING LUGGAGE
OF RUNAWAY WIFE.

Mrs. Stella Lehman,
the pretty young wife whose husband carries her suitcase while she's "running away" from him, and seeking a divorce.

SHOULD a husband whose pretty wife is running away from him carry her suitcase for her from one hotel to another?

Yet that is what Charles Lehman did when young Mrs. Stella Lehman "Red" from the Westminster Hotel to the Rosslyn, if hotel attendants' reports are correct. For when Mrs. Lehman dashed into the Rosslyn breathlessly
"feeling" hubby trotted behind with the migrating suitcase, and dropped it on the floor in front of the counter with something like a sigh of relief.

If Charles carried the luggage Tuesday night, he has been patiently carrying it all the other nights for ten weeks, while Mrs. Lehman was fleeing from hotel to hotel in her efforts to evade his persistent wooing, while she's suing for divorce.

The Lehman case could not be found yesterday for the very particular reason that Mrs. Lehman, soon after her divan tete a tete with hubby at the Rosslyn, and her lunch at Levy's night before last, returned to the Rosslyn, repacked her suitcase with rapidity attained by long practice, and left the hotel. Just before that she had hidden hubby good night. A while before she had decided to make her final stand at the Rosslyn because she could not face the alternative of Watts or Azusa. Where she went is not known except, probably, to Serrano Holmes hubby, because last night he went to his quarters at the Hotel Watson, on Pico street, packed his suitcase, and announced his departure for San Francisco. This may be an indication that Mrs. Lehman has preferred even San Francisco to Watts or Azusa, or it may be that Mr. Lehman has gone after reinforcements in his efforts to block Mrs. Lehman's demand for a decreed to "shake" him.

At any rate, both have vanished.
As Lehman fled no answer to his wife's complaint yesterday it will seek its regular place on the divorce calendar in Judge Bordwell's court for hearing. Just when that will be has not been determined.

The Rosslyn was besieged by calls for Mrs. Lehman yesterday. Some of them were by women who shared her opinion of the way for discipline her husband. Some even went further, and suggested breaking on the wheel as a humane way of punishing husbands who are naughty when wives go to the resorts.

ments in the county on real estate and personal property, with from one to two per cent. on the value of the property. This year's taxes, though but comparatively little in excess of those levied last year, provide for many improvements of county property; also make provision for the payment of interest on the first installment of the payment of taxes for the new year.
The increase in the tax total is due principally to improvements made in the last year.

There are sixty-one tax rolls in the hands of the collector, fifty-eight belonging to real estate, and the remainder to personal property. It is stated that the payment of taxes for the first half-year will become delinquent on the last Monday of April.

SAKE.
RAILWAYS ARE MUCH ABUSED.

GOV. CUTLER OF UTAH SPEAKS
PLAIN WORDS.

Says Great Corporations Have Been
Misrepresented and That His State Would Be Glad to Welcome More of Them Without Imposing Hard Conditions for Franchises.

"Railroads are a set of much abused and misrepresented corporations," said Gov. John C. Cutler of Utah at the Westminster Hotel last night. "The attitude of the government and the general public toward the roads has gone far toward offsetting the good work they have done for the country at large and the West in particular."

"We need railroads badly in my State," he continued. "We would welcome them with open arms and leave to the distant future the possible problems of their regulation, if, indeed, they ever needed regulation. There would be no absurd 2-cent fare legislation, such as has been passed in so many States in the East. I believe that the roads stand ready and willing to do the right thing and I do not believe that they are the pirates and the corruptors of politics which seems to be the popular conception of them at present."

Gov. Cutler has been attending the

NEGRO SAVED
BY STRATEGY.

Morton Close to Hanging at Penitentiary Gate.

Mob Awaited Wretch, Wild
to Put Him to Death.

Officer's Quick Wit Averts a Lynching Bee.

Narrowly escaping mob violence in Los Angeles after his fateful assault on a young white woman, Edward Morton, the negro sent to Folsom prison for life for the offense, had a close call with a gang of lynchmen upon his arrival at the penitentiary town.

Deputy Sheriff W. Woods, who took the prisoner north and who returned yesterday, said that it was only by strategy that the life of the miserable negro was spared so he could spend the remainder of his days behind prison bars.

When the train bearing Morton,
Woods and Deputy Sheriff Holman drew into the little town of Folsom, a gang of angry miners was waiting, ready to override the law and to put Morton to a quick death. Reports from the north indicate that most of the credit for throwing the mob off the track is due to Woods.

Seeing the crowd around the train
when it pulled in at the station, Woods quickly dragged the negro into a saloon and casually remarked to the bartender that he had a burglar who was going to serve ten years in the penitentiary. The bartender became interested and Woods manufactured white lies to keep the mob off the track.

The bartender believed the tale, but the miners who had gathered about were incredulous. They surrounded Morton, who whined like a whipped dog. They announced loudly that they might as well lynch Morton and be done with it, even if he wasn't the man for whom they waited.

Morton was hurried into a 'bus for the penitentiary, and at a signal from the officers the lynchmen were applied to the horses, which went through and over the crowd to the open country beyond.

It was the closest shave I ever had," remarked Woods. "When the Sheriff turned Morton over to my care at Burbank, the night after the attempted lynching of the negro in Los Angeles, I decided that there would be little trouble in getting him safely to the penitentiary."

On reaching the town of Folsom I expected no trouble, but took the precaution to keep the negro cuffed to the chair. When I looked out of the train window I saw nothing to alarm me, and we left the train.

When we reached Folsom, I saw nothing to alarm me, and we left the train. When we reached Folsom, I saw

CAPTOR OF OUTLAWS
GOES TO LONG REST.

ONE of the men who fought many battles with outlaws in Los Angeles county thirty years ago was laid to rest in Rosehill Cemetery yesterday. He was James Kerr, who came to Compton in 1876 from Platt county, Mo., and was made a peace officer a year later.

In those days great droves of cattle ranged the lands of the county and the present beautiful hills of Los Angeles were subject to the attacks of half-breed cattle and horse thieves who came over the border, and the serious question with the stock men was the extermination of the rustlers. As a peace officer for two years it was Kerr's business to hunt the cattle and horse thieves, and old-timers remember him as a resolute officer who was first feared and then shunned by the brigands, and who finally drove them out of his territory.

In the two years he held office he captured and convicted twenty-two miscreants, and so resolutely did he attend to his duties that he got the reputation throughout Southern California of being a terror to evildoers of the most desperate type. Many credit him with breaking the backbone of the half-organized bandits who had long thrived by stealing cattle.

Mr. Kerr came to his office seasoned for fighting, for he had served in the Missouri Home Guards after he was rejected by the Union army because of his tender age. With the guards he was in the encounters with the guerrilla bands of Jesse James and Quantrell, and saw the terrible massacre
at Lawrence, Kan.

After coming to California Kerr engaged in the real estate business at Compton, the firm being Compton & Kerr. He was identified with many large real estate enterprises in the county and gave much of his time to the development of the San Jacinto Valley. For several years past he had been connected with the Ordier-Hamilton Company of Los Angeles.

Mr. Kerr would have completed his sixtieth year on the 23rd inst. had he lived. Organic heart disease was the cause of his death, which occurred at his home, No. 410 West Third street.

He leaves a widow and three children.
The funeral services were held at the Peck & Chase chapel yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. Will A. Knighten.
Kerr was a native of Ohio.

WONDERS.

BIG INSURANCE MAN
SEEING A CHANGE.

SMILING urbanely after a sumptuous dinner at the Alexandria, where he is staying for a few days, Samuel J. Pipkin, one of the most widely known fire insurance men in the world, whose home and offices are located in London, last night recounted his first trip to Los Angeles, twenty-two years ago.

"To say the least, the city of the past is as different to that of the present, as was the ancient city of Rome to the Rome with which we are familiar," said Mr. Pipkin. "At that time Los Angeles was a straggly town with no definite form or characteristic buildings save the old mission, and contained about 40,000 inhabitants, or less."

"It was on that trip here, on which my wife accompanied me, that I first became acquainted with the checking system in baggage transportation. I had always feared the loss of my luggage, but upon the assurance of my friends, I decided to leave it take the accredited American handling. The journey here was most wonderful. For almost a day we rode in the snows of the high Sierras, and when night came I could not sleep for the excitement of awakening the next morning to find almost a dream, a scene from a fairyland, for we had passed into the lower world, where the fields were bright with wild flowers, and a few small orchards were bearing their blossoms to tint the heavy green of all the surroundings."

"On a Saturday afternoon we landed in Los Angeles. We were driven to the principal hotel in an old style cab, and, after registering, were assured that the baggage I had expected to lose had really gone astray, but would show up before the day was past. Night came and no luggage, and so we were forced to take a trip to one of the stores, where we purchased underclothing and other necessities for the day. Naturally, I fretted and stewed for the bigger part of the Sabbath, but in the evening the luggage arrived. And do you know, that was the only time that I have ever had any trouble with baggage in America."

"When I returned to Los Angeles, I was full of enthusiasm. Although well over thirty years of age, I was as vigorous as a youth. I had been in the position of manager for the Atlas Assurance Company, Ltd., of London, which insured heavily in the San Francisco fire, and paid in full. It was his business, Frank J. Devlin, Pacific Coast representative of the Atlas company, is staying at the Alexandria with him. Regarding the rise of San Francisco, Mr. Pipkin could scarcely express his surprise at the development of the two years and a half since the disaster."

"The rebuilding of the destroyed metropolis is one of the most wonderful achievements of the age and to confiscate any film which portrays
the methods used in violating the laws
pertaining to counterfeiting stamps,
coins, bills and bonds. Many such films
are still extant, as they were sent out
broadcast."

In his annual report on the work of the secret-service division of the Treasury Department, Chief Wilkie says on this subject: "In connection with the marked increase in coin manufacturing there is an interesting fact that to a certain extent may have been responsible for some of the offenses.
Among the films exhibited in the cheap picture shows, which are scattered all over the United States, there was one which told the story of the operations of a gang of coiners, and one part of the film was devoted to a detailed exposition of the method of manufacturing counterfeit coins by the molding process."

"Every step in the production of a base metal counterfeit, from mixing the plaster of Paris, from which the molds are made, to the plating and finishing of the product, was shown,
and provided an object lesson in counterfeiting that could not fail to appeal

Secret Service Men Seize Films of Cheap Pictorial Shows and Destroy Them on the Ground That They Encourage Counterfeiting—Orders Issued by Department.

MOVING-PICTURE THEATERS have come under the watchful eye of the United States Secret Service men, because, it is alleged, they have been accessory to the increase of counterfeiting in many parts of the country.

The offending pictures, which brought these shows into disrepute with the Treasury Department, give a life-sized exhibition of the making of counterfeit dollars. The film begins with a series of pictures, showing how the molds of plaster of Paris are made, and runs through the whole gamut of molding, polishing and passing of the bad coin.

It is the first part of the film to which the attention of the secret-service men was directed. The Treasury Department believes that this is a regular lesson in the school of crime, and puts it into the minds of men and boys to experiment with coins and plaster of Paris, who otherwise would never think of such a thing.

These films were manufactured in Chicago. After taking the matter up with the United States attorney in that city, the Treasury Department ordered them confiscated and destroyed, and the making stopped. The secret-service men carried out the order.

John E. Wilkie, chief of the secret service, was so impressed with the ill effects of pictures of this class that he has issued an order to all of his men to keep their eyes open for similar exhibitions, and
to confiscate any film which portrays
the methods used in violating the laws
pertaining to counterfeiting stamps,
coins, bills and bonds. Many such films
are still extant, as they were sent out
broadcast."

STRAW VOTE FOR TAFT.

Coming down from San Francisco
on the steamship Queen, which arrived at Redondo yesterday morning, A. S.
Stimson of this city passed blank ballots to all the passengers and polled a straw vote on the coming national contest. The result showed a splendid plurality for Taft, whose majority over Bryan was nearly three to one.
Out of sixty-four ballots cast the various candidates received the following numbers: Taft, 33; Bryan, 14; Debs, 9; Chaffin, 2; Hagen, 1. All the Debs votes came from the steerage. With the exception of half a dozen from the steerage, about half a dozen from

PASADENA. TAMMANY MAN HAS REAL REST.

VISITS CROWN CITY AND FORGETS CITY.

Women Take Opportunity to Express Themselves on Water Question by Signing Petitions Asking for Re-submission of Bonds—Opposition not Asleep.

Office of The Times, No. 25 S. Raymond Ave.
PASADENA, Oct. 10.—J. P. Campbell of Tammany Hall is registered at Hotel Hamilton. He has been here three days, has seen all of Los Angeles, knows the conductors of the street cars, says that Long Beach bathing is the finest in the world, likes the nearby mountains because they are easier to climb than the Alps, and is only keeping out of the municipal water campaign because he has retired from politics. In the course of a short talk he said:

"Los Angeles is a fine town. The people are stirring and are taking advantage of every opportunity. That is the only way to success. When we saw the difficulty with the traffic in New York City we said: 'Why not have $50,000, now you put in subways. We don't want to run them. Too many petty jobs for the city to give away. Subways and elevated trains are crowded now and Belmont and the rest of the big men run them right. No use for a city to dabble in such affairs.'

"The people of Southern California have a big chance for a fine harbor right down there at San Pedro. That will be one of the things to make the country."

WOMEN QUICK TO SIGN.
Although the women of Pasadena did not have a chance to vote at the recent bond election they are taking the opportunity to express themselves by signing the petitions that are being circulated to secure the signatures of a majority of the taxpayers, favoring a re-submission of the water question to the people of the petition circulated yesterday, those heard from were well signed by feminine taxpayers and one petition has as many women as men signed up.

It is probable that even a hotter fight may be expected if the purchase of the water plants is resubmitted to the people for the opposition is not asleep.

TOURNAMENT ENDS.
Although ill at home, Frank V. Rider, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Tournament of Roses Association, is urging on the solicitors from his bedside by telephone. He has also called up some of the big men of the city and asked them to exert their energies.

"Most of the people I would like to reach are out of town," he complained last night. "It is up to those who are here to exert themselves a little more in meeting the present emergency. Every man in the city would give in proportion to his means, without being asked, I believe it would be only a matter of a few hours until the money was raised."

President Cary of the Tournament Association yesterday practically withdrew his resignation, he being convinced that the people wish him to lead in the preparation for the New Year's fête.

That the directors have a scheme for New Year's night that will be more popular than the annual ball is intimated, but the scheme is not yet so complete as to be made public.

FIRST MUSICAL OF YEAR.
The first musical of the year will be held at Hotel Maryland tonight. It has been decided to invite the general public. The programme will open at 8 o'clock.

BIBLE STUDY RALLY.
At the Y.M.C.A. last night the first Bible study rally of the year was held. The boys are enthusiastic over the outlook. Director Kerr was present and told the programme for the year. Last year the classes made an excellent record, three of the boys scoring 90 per cent in the international Bible examinations. They were given the official medals of the Y.M.C.A. last night, Harold Shutt, Harold McDonald and John R. Pearson were the recipients.

MT. WILSON ATTRACTION.

Revolving Dome to House Largest Lens in the World is Practically Completed.

SIERRA MADRE, Oct. 9.—The practical completion of the revolving dome which is to house the largest lens in the world has furnished increased interest for the guests of the Mt. Wilson Hotel in the solar observatory of the Carnegie Institute. The new dome is a few hundred feet further removed.

The work at present is in installing the delicate mechanism to operate the telescope. The sixty-inch lens, in popular parlance, or more properly, the silver plate mirror, for reflecting the image of the stars for photographing will not be in position for some time.

POMONA, Oct. 9.—A 6 o'clock prayer meeting conducted by Prof. B. B. Stout at the Presbyterian Church this morning attracted many of the delegates to the Sunday-school convention here, and an earnest service resulted. The day was mostly given over to practical topics relative to education in Sunday-school work; Mayor Firey of this city presided at the later morning session, and the graduates of the teachers' training department were addressed by Dr. R. P. Shepherd of this city, diploma presented by Superintendent W. C. Pearce. The report of the State superintendent of teacher training department was given by Prof. E. L. Zahn of Santa Paula. Irvine of Riverside and Rev. O. T. Nichols of El Monte.

ANGELENO VISITORS.

This evening brought a special trainload of enthusiastic members of adult Bible classes from Los Angeles to participate in what experienced convention men here say was the greatest adult Bible class demonstration ever made in the State. The visitors brought a brass band and were met at the local station by the visiting delegates and hundreds of enthusiastic local Sunday-school workers from the different churches, organized into divisions and sections, and a grand parade was formed under direction of E. E. King, marshal. Marching and singing, the parade proceeded down the main street, and the women's section, from the parade halted at the corner of Holt avenue and Gibbs street, the men's section entering the Presbyterian Church and the women's section proceeding to the Trinity Methodist Church, "twin meetings" having been arranged. At the Presbyterian Church the meeting was opened over by E. H. Barrett of Los Angeles, the principal speakers being Bishop Bell, Rev. Dr. Hugh K. Walker of Los Angeles and Superintendent W. C. Pearce of Chicago. Prof. B. P. Stout had charge of the singing. At Trinity Church, Mrs. Florence Conner, president of the Los Angeles Philanthropic Union presided, and the chief speakers were Rev. T. G. H. Stevens of Santa Monica, Bishop Bell, Superintendent Pearce, and State General Secretary Gibson of Los Angeles. Both of the meetings proved a great success and the visitors from Los Angeles left the city on their special train shortly after 10 o'clock.

AS USUAL. TRAVELS AT TOO SWIFT A PACE.

WELL CONNECTED YOUTH FINDS HIMSELF IN JAIL.

Accused of Passing Forged Check on Long Beach Merchant—Tenant Farmer—Has Terrible Experience. Woman Denied Supposedly Dead Husband's Effects.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 9.—Going a too swift pace, T. B. Ober, a well-connected young man of Santa Ana, is in jail here on a charge of passing a forged check. He was arrested last night after he had given the bogus document to Mr. Chambers of a local shoe store. The check bore what purported to be the signature of E. M. Rasmussen and was for $25. Chambers, after giving the young man change, telephoned Rasmussen, who denied all knowledge of the paper. The shoe merchant then went to the Police Station, got an officer and with him hunted the streets until he located Ober and gave him into custody. When searched the prisoner had another check in his pocket, which was supposed to be a forgery and which it is presumed he meant to pass upon some unsuspecting storekeeper.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Joseph DeLuka, a farmer tenant on the Fred Bixby ranch, lies at his home in bandages and is suffering between life and death, the victim of a terrible experience last night. DeLuka had been over to Anaheim Landing and was stepping into his wagon to return home when he was struck by a runaway horse. The horse started to run, DeLuka fell between the shaft and wheel, was unable to extricate himself and was dragged for half a mile until the runaway collided with a post, wrecking the wagon and releasing the man whose clothing was nearly all stripped from his body, which was frightfully cut and bruised. Half dead DeLuka lay amid the ruins of his wagon for nearly an hour before assistance reached him.

DENIES WOMAN'S REQUEST.

Mrs. Emmett Cochrane, wife of the man reported to be drowned September 13, has written Chief Williams asking that her husband's clothing, money and valuables left at the bath-house be forwarded to her at Alameda. The Chief applied to the bath-house company for the effects, but Manager Archer refused to give them up, on the ground that there is no assurance that Cochrane is dead and the clothing and valuables will be held until proof of death is furnished or Cochrane personally claims his belongings.

GILLETTS TO SPEAK.

The Long Beach Taft-Sherman Club today received notification that Gov. Gillett and John McNab will address the Republicans of this vicinity at the Auditorium on Monday evening.

Owing to internal dissensions, the volunteer fire department recently organized at West Long Beach was disbanded last night and a new company formed.

LOWEST TIDE.

The lowest tide of the year was that of this afternoon. The water line was 200 feet beyond the life-saving station of the bath-house and barely touched the farthest pilings of the old pier at the end of the beach.

The Mercantile Construction Company today began work upon the new public pier and wharf at West Long Beach, the 12th pier, having a free landing on the east side of the bay.

RESUME BUILDING.

Construction of Extensive System of Firebreaks Again Taken up—Monrovia Asked to Aid.

MONROVIA, Oct. 9.—Preparations are being made to resume building in the San Gabriel government reserve the extensive system of firebreaks which has been in course of construction for many months for the past four years. What is in effect, the second line of defense is now nearly continuous along the crests of the higher peaks. The first line traversing the southern foothills contiguous to the government district will be under construction this season. One important barrier will extend from Santa Anita to Monrovia Cañon. Supervisor Charlton of the Angeles reserve has asked this city to contribute half of the $500 expense. It is improbable that there will be any delay in the appropriation, which will be essentially for the protection of municipal watersheds. The firebreak proposed would prevent such disastrous conflagrations as recently ravaged La Cañada and which spread beyond control because of conditions similar to those obtaining in this locality. The heavy annual expense of keeping the firebreak clear of weeds will be borne by the government.

EXAMINES PAVEMENTS.

James F. King, official representative of Lake Forest, Ill., is making a careful examination of Monrovia's famous petrolium pavements. In his report he will recommend the building of a similar pavement in this locality. The heavy annual expense of keeping the firebreak clear of weeds will be borne by the government.

NEW DEPARTURE.

A new departure in the way of handling building material for Catalina Island was inaugurated with the arrival of the schooner Louise, Capt. Anderson. The Louise arrived yesterday from the Umpqua River with 400,000 feet of lumber and 11,000 laths consigned to the Banning Company for use in constructing buildings and improvements on the west end of Catalina Island at the isthmus. The Louise was taken over today in low of the tug Warrior and will discharge her cargo at a small wharf recently constructed there. It is stated that the Banning Company authorities extensive improvements at the isthmus before the opening of the next summer season, and has contracted for the delivery of several other lumber cargoes on Catalina during the winter.

AGGRESSIVE WORK.

It is expected that aggressive improvement work will soon be resumed by the Outer Harbor Dock and Warehouse Company, popularly known as the Miner Syndicate, on its concession in the outer harbor. The steamer J. B. Stearns, Capt. Bonfield, now on the way to this port from Port Ludlow, has a consignment of 700 plating consigned to the company, which will be used on the concession in the near future.

PORT'S CALLERS ARE ADDED TO.

ANOTHER STEAMER PUT ON SAN PEDRO'S LIST.

Pacific Coast Company Gives Harbor City Direct Connection With Rapidly Growing Towns of Mexico and Central America—Extensive Improvements at Catalina.

SAN PEDRO, Oct. 9.—Flying the Mexican flag, the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's little white liner Curacao, Capt. Paulsen, arrived this morning from San Francisco. She is carrying freight and passengers and after taking additional cargo here cleared for Mazatlan, Guaymas, and other West Mexican coast ports, this afternoon.

In the future San Pedro will be added to the company's regular schedule of the Curacao. She will arrive here bound south on the ninth of each month and will call in on the northern voyage about the twenty-fifth.

The calling of the Pacific Coast Company's steamer at San Pedro is destined to add much to the future commercial importance of this port. It will bring Los Angeles and the Southwest into closer commercial connection with the rapidly growing trade of Mexico and Central America. Already the little Curacao alone carries thousands of dollars each month in ore and bullion from Mexico to the smelters in San Francisco. This trade rightly belongs to Los Angeles and with the establishment of facilities for handling and treating these shipments it is believed in time they will be diverted from the north to Southern California.

Among the passengers on the Curacao was Robert Sausa, the son of a wealthy Mazatlan liquor dealer, who is being sent back to Mexico under an order of deportation. Sausa, before coming to California, served part of a year's sentence in the penitentiary for killing a man. Having been convicted of a felony, the United States consular authorities at Los Angeles refused to issue him a passport and sent him back to Mexico.

Officers of the steamer and officials of the company expressed themselves as exceedingly gratified at the amount of patronage furnished by San Pedro on her initial regular call.

UNWRITTEN LAW.

JUMP CLAIMS, PAY PENALTY.

Dentist and Companion Get Desert Justice.

Slayer of Two Men Blows His Own Head Off.

San Bernardino Fraternity Trouble Ends.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 9.—(Exclusive.) Bill McKee, the aged miner, who yesterday afternoon snuffed out the lives of Dr. Nathaniel Kuns, a retired Los Angeles dentist, and Rudolph Albers, sixty-five miles from here, at the Rose mine, his life for his act, the headless body being found in his cabin this afternoon.

McKee had blown his own head off with a forty-five caliber rifle, the same weapon he used to slay his two enemies, and bring bullets into their heads as they lay on the ground crying for mercy.

This tragic ending of the double slaying was telephoned to the Sheriff's office this evening from Bear Valley by Alvah H. Willard of this city, who with a party of prospectors passed the scene of the tragedy this afternoon, and made the discovery of McKee's suicide.

When the Willard party reached the spot, they were horrified to find the two bodies of the Los Angeles men in the road within a short distance of McKee's cabin.

The prospectors hurried to the residence of Superintendent Watts of the Rose mine, Mrs. Watts was found hysterical, all alone. She recounted the circumstances of the tragedy, and stated that soon after the slaying she fired that killed Kuns and Albers, and other shot was heard, and she believed McKee had ended his life.

The tragedy was hurriedly reported to the McKee cabin, and breaking down the door found the remains of the man lying on the bed, his head shot away and a rifle held in his hand.

Mrs. Watts had told them that McKee had been arguing with Dr. Kuns and his friend over some property dispute, and that he had suddenly opened upon them, completing his work after they had fallen from their wagon into the road.

DENTIST JUMPED CLAIMS.

An investigation of the mining records of the county show that Bill McKee located the claims in dispute over eight years ago, and had relocated frequently since then, and also did considerable assessment work on the property. Dr. Kuns having deliberately jumped them.

Friends of Kuns here state that he had sunk considerable money in the group of claims held by McKee, who finally refused to do any assessment work or to give the claims a majority, let alone a two-thirds vote for the bonds.

The bonds have been bought bitterly by the McKee party, and many of the prominent men in the city and county are against them. Even some of the supporters of the movement admit that good roads are better left alone.

GOOD ROADS BONDS.

The people of this county will vote tomorrow on the question of bonding the county for nearly $1,500,000 for good roads. The proposition is to build a road from the Ventura line, on south through the county some 120 miles, to the San Luis county border. Great opposition to the bonds has appeared, and advocates will get even a majority, let alone a two-thirds vote for the bonds.

The bonds have been bought bitterly by the McKee party, and many of the prominent men in the city and county are against them. Even some of the supporters of the movement admit that good roads are better left alone.

Elmore Complains That Moonlight Is Not Enough When Electricity Is Paid For.

ELMORE, Oct. 9.—Considerable comment is heard on the fact that while the street lights are not turned on at all these moonlight nights, there is no reduction to the city for this saving of fuel to the electric light company.

The last of the new lights has recently been installed. For the fifty lights of the city to pay the company $60 per month, and the lights are run from about 6:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., except on moonlight nights, then they are turned off, and Luna furnishes the illumination. There has been so far no mention of reduced rates on this account.

The matter was recently discussed at the Trustees' meeting, all members were in favor of the proposition except Trustee Keith, who said he wanted the light on his corner all the time. He was informed that the light there just happened to be on the circuit that governed the residence lights, and that it would burn every night.

The one light, however, attracted considerable attention the first night the others were dark and now the Trustee's corner is unilluminated—save by the moon.

The next speaker was Mr. Miguel Estudillo, nominee for State Senator for Riverside and Orange counties, who stated that when he was elected he would look after the fruit and other interests of his district, and emphasized the great importance of electing a Republican for United States Senator.

CLAMS IN DANGER.

Anaheim and Bay City Beds Being Dug Out to Supply the Los Angeles Market.

BAY CITY, Oct. 9.—Local authorities are trying in every way to protect the clam beds in Anaheim Bay and in the Bay City lagoon. A law in Orange county reads to the effect that "no person is allowed to carry away at one time more than two bushels of clams or cockles."

To evade the law clam diggers, in groups, each man bearing twenty-five pounds, ship their catches weekly from Naples, which is the nearest seaport. Under the next Legislature passes a law declaring a closed season for clams and cockles in Anaheim Bay, and has been famous for so many years throughout this section of the country, will soon be barren of the succulent bivalves.

RIVERSIDE OPPOSES CHANGE IN TAXATION.

Chamber of Commerce Puts Itself on Record as Opposed to Proposal. That It Would Be Fatal to Any Bond Issue for Public Improvements.

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 9.—The Chamber of Commerce has put itself on record as against the proposed constitutional amendment to changing the system of taxation for the maintenance of the State government. So far as known the local organization is the first to take action of this kind.

The report of a committee appointed to investigate the proposition is adverse to the amendment. At a meeting yesterday afternoon, this report was unanimously accepted. It was urged that in some districts of the county it would be impossible to maintain the public schools if deprived of the revenue from the taxation of railroad property. It was also argued that this amendment, if adopted, would be fatal to any bond issue which might be proposed to meet the cost of public improvements.

Friends of Kuns here state that he had sunk considerable money in the group of claims held by McKee, who finally refused to do any assessment work or to give the claims a majority, let alone a two-thirds vote for the bonds.

The bonds have been bought bitterly by the McKee party, and many of the prominent men in the city and county are against them. Even some of the supporters of the movement admit that good roads are better left alone.

SEVEN MEN RESCUED.

Tossed About Four Days in Sixteen-Foot Boat After Wreck of Schooner.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—After having abandoned their sinking vessel, and passing four days in a small open boat on a storm-swept ocean, Capt. Charles F. Hines and the crew of seven men of the Baltimore schooner John A. Matheson, were brought here today on the steamer Seminole, from San Domingo.

The Matheson sailed on August 25 from Baltimore for Tortuga Island. On September 10 she ran into a terrific northeast hurricane, which continued for three days. The schooner's masts were whipped out of her, her small boats were smashed, she began heaving so badly that the pumps failed to get water out of the hold, and a sixteen-foot boat in the vessel's cargo. This was equipped with provisions and water and the eight men managed to get away.

For four days and nights the little craft was tossed about. Then the Seminole, bound south from New York, ran in sight. The boat was hoisted and carried them to Tortuga Island, where they remained until the Seminole returned en route to New York.

Agricultural Implement Deal.

The Moline Plow Company Purchases Stock of Monitor Drill Company.

The Moline Plow Company, one of the largest manufacturers of agricultural implements in the world, which is represented by the California Moline Plow Company, its branch houses, located at Stockton and Los Angeles, Cal., has purchased the stock of the Monitor Drill Company of Minneapolis, Minn., and will hereafter run that institution as a manufacturing branch of the Moline Plow Company.

It is the policy of the Moline Plow Company to make all the goods which it sells, and in addition to its large plant at Moline, where plows, corn planters, cultivators, harrows, etc., are made, it owns the Mandt Wagon Company at Stoughton, Wis., the Henry Wagon Company at Freeport, Ill., and the Freeport Carriage Company at Freeport, Ill., where the high-grade vehicles are manufactured for wholesale use.

The acquisition of the Monitor Drill Company gives them a complete line of tools for preparing, sowing and cultivating the earth, and the excellence of the product turned out by the Monitor Drill Company will maintain the high reputation for excellence which the product of the factories owned by the Moline Plow Company has acquired. The drill factory will probably be enlarged and revised, and put in condition to turn out a very much larger volume of goods in the very near future.
